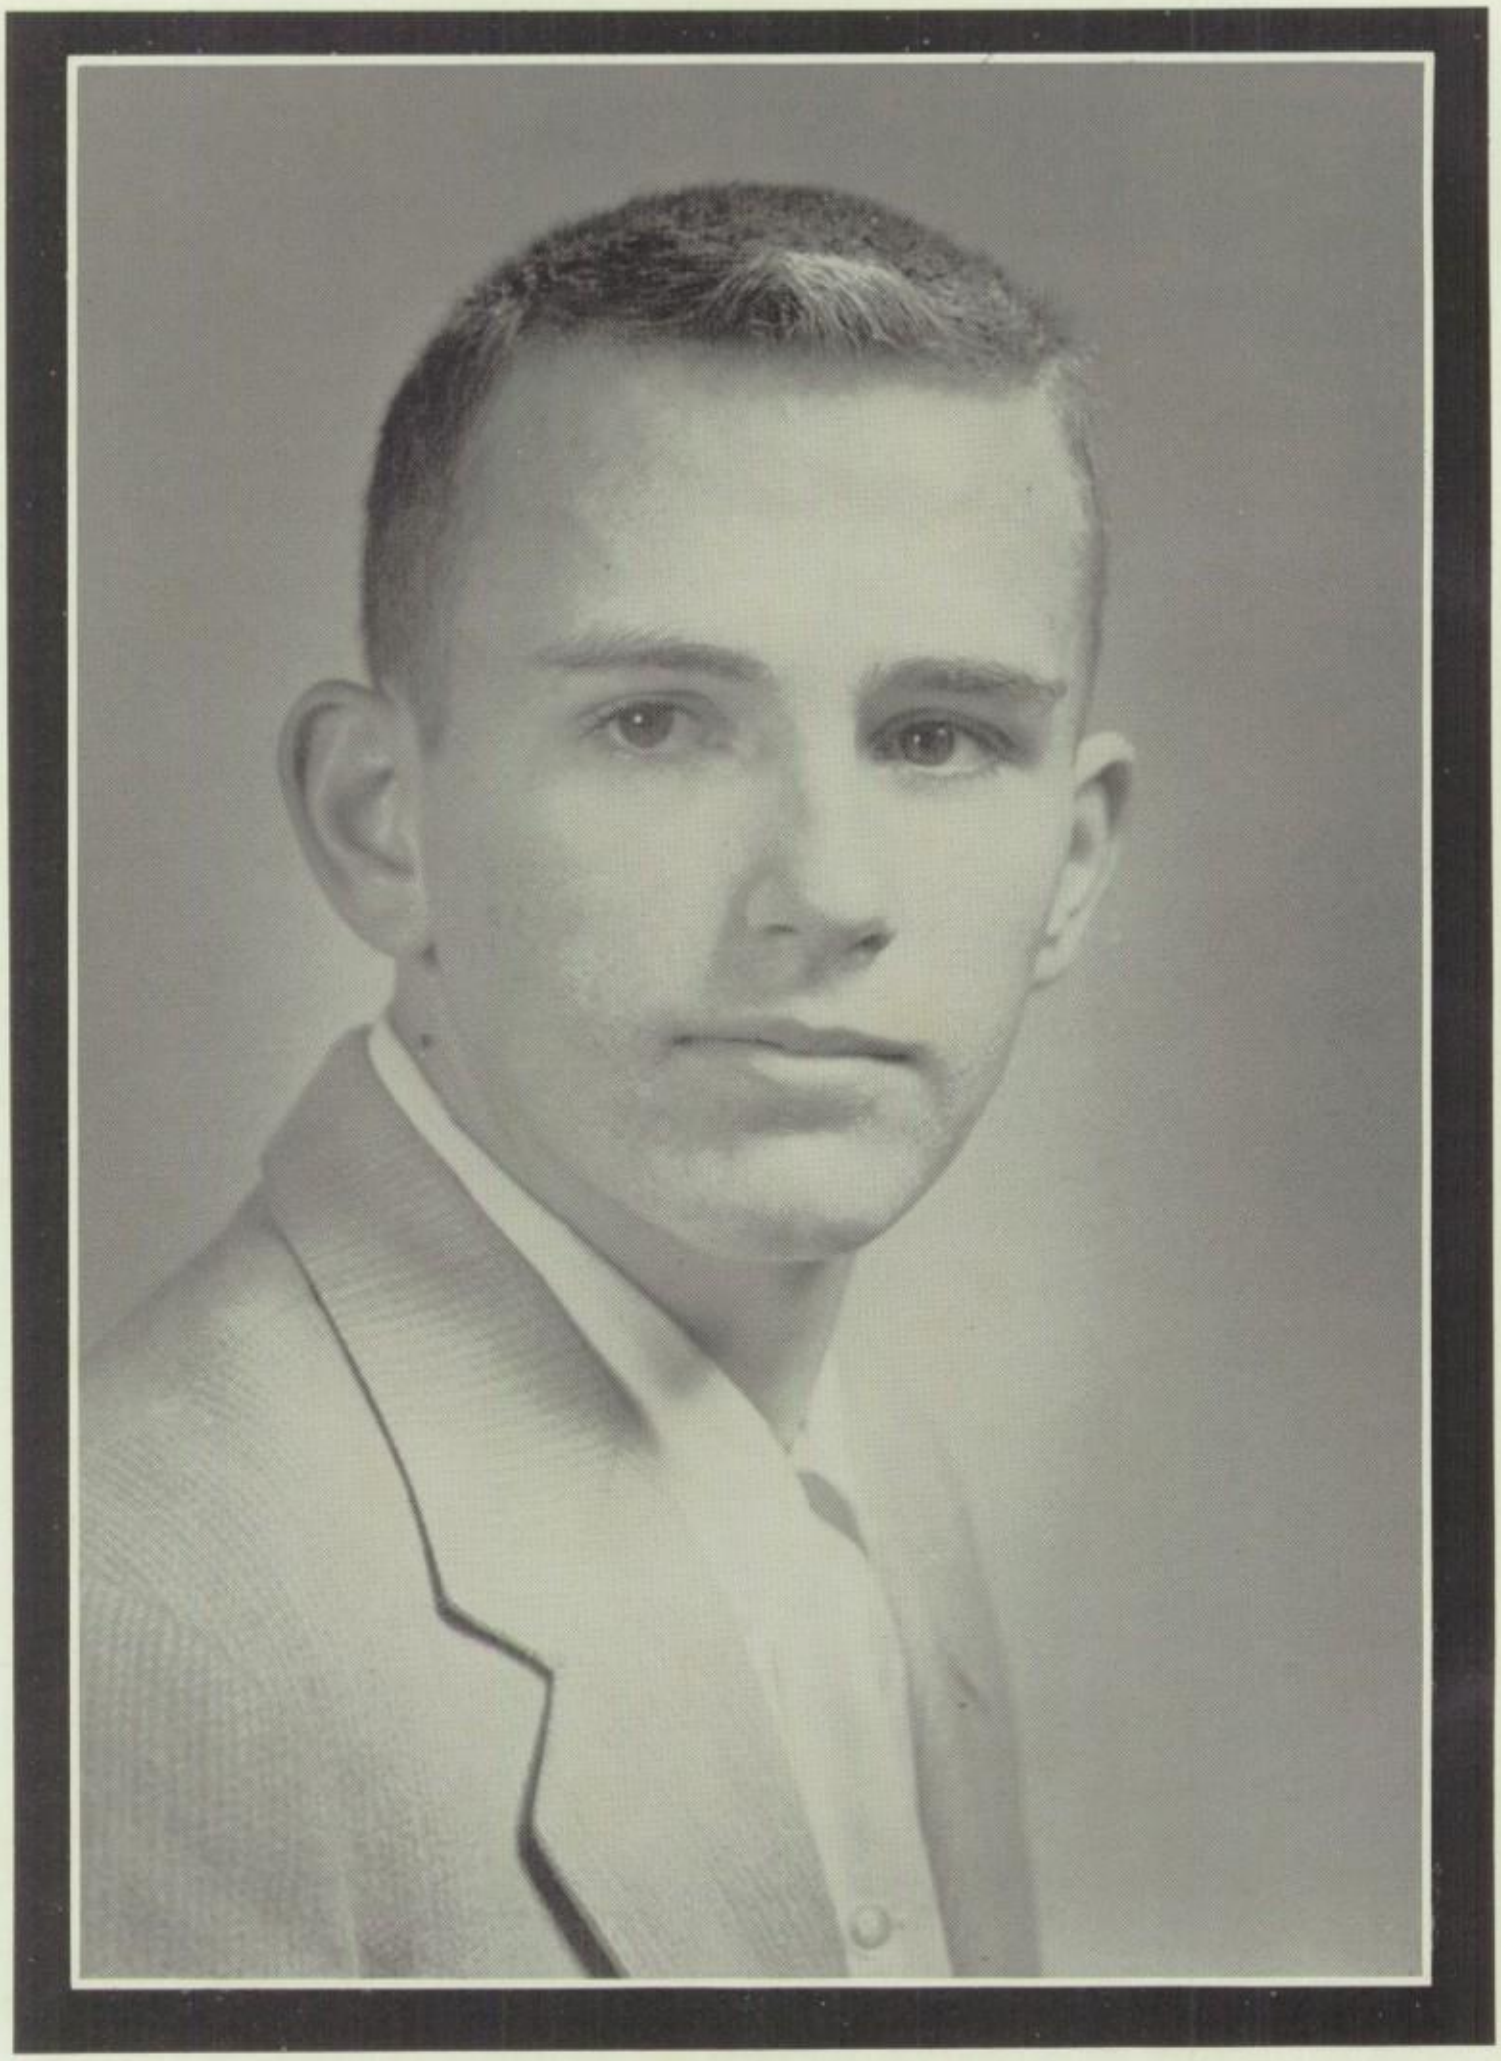
DEDICATION



We, the Senior Class of 1959, dedicate our Marian, to the memory of our classmate, Freddie Benelli, who met his death in a fatal accident August 14, 1958. We shall always remember Freddie for his great generosity, his winning personality, and his exceptional religious spirit.

ADMINISTRATION

Monsignor Alex G. Stremel, Superintendent, figures the cost for the new school building.

Monsignor Stremel and School Board members, J. Towner, C. Dellasega, C. Brown, T. Quinn, and E. McNally discuss the plans for the new school with architects, Frank Grimaldi; (Class of '42) and F. Volick.

Sister M. Linus, Principal, checks credits for Carole Buset.

Sister M. Walburga, instructor in biology and science examines specimens.

Sister M. Justina, teacher of Mathematics, English, and Journalism smiles in anticipation of another day.

Sister M. Cleophas, librarian and teacher of chemistry, history, and speech checks out a popular book to Sandra Mobley.

Mrs. Johnson, faithful secretary, caught in action as she types up semester exams.

Sister M. Luciana enjoys a period of relaxation after a day of teaching glee club and English.

Father Mulivhill gives final instruction to A.J. Wachter, Frank Naccarato, Mike Vietti and Mike Quinn before Solemn High Mass.

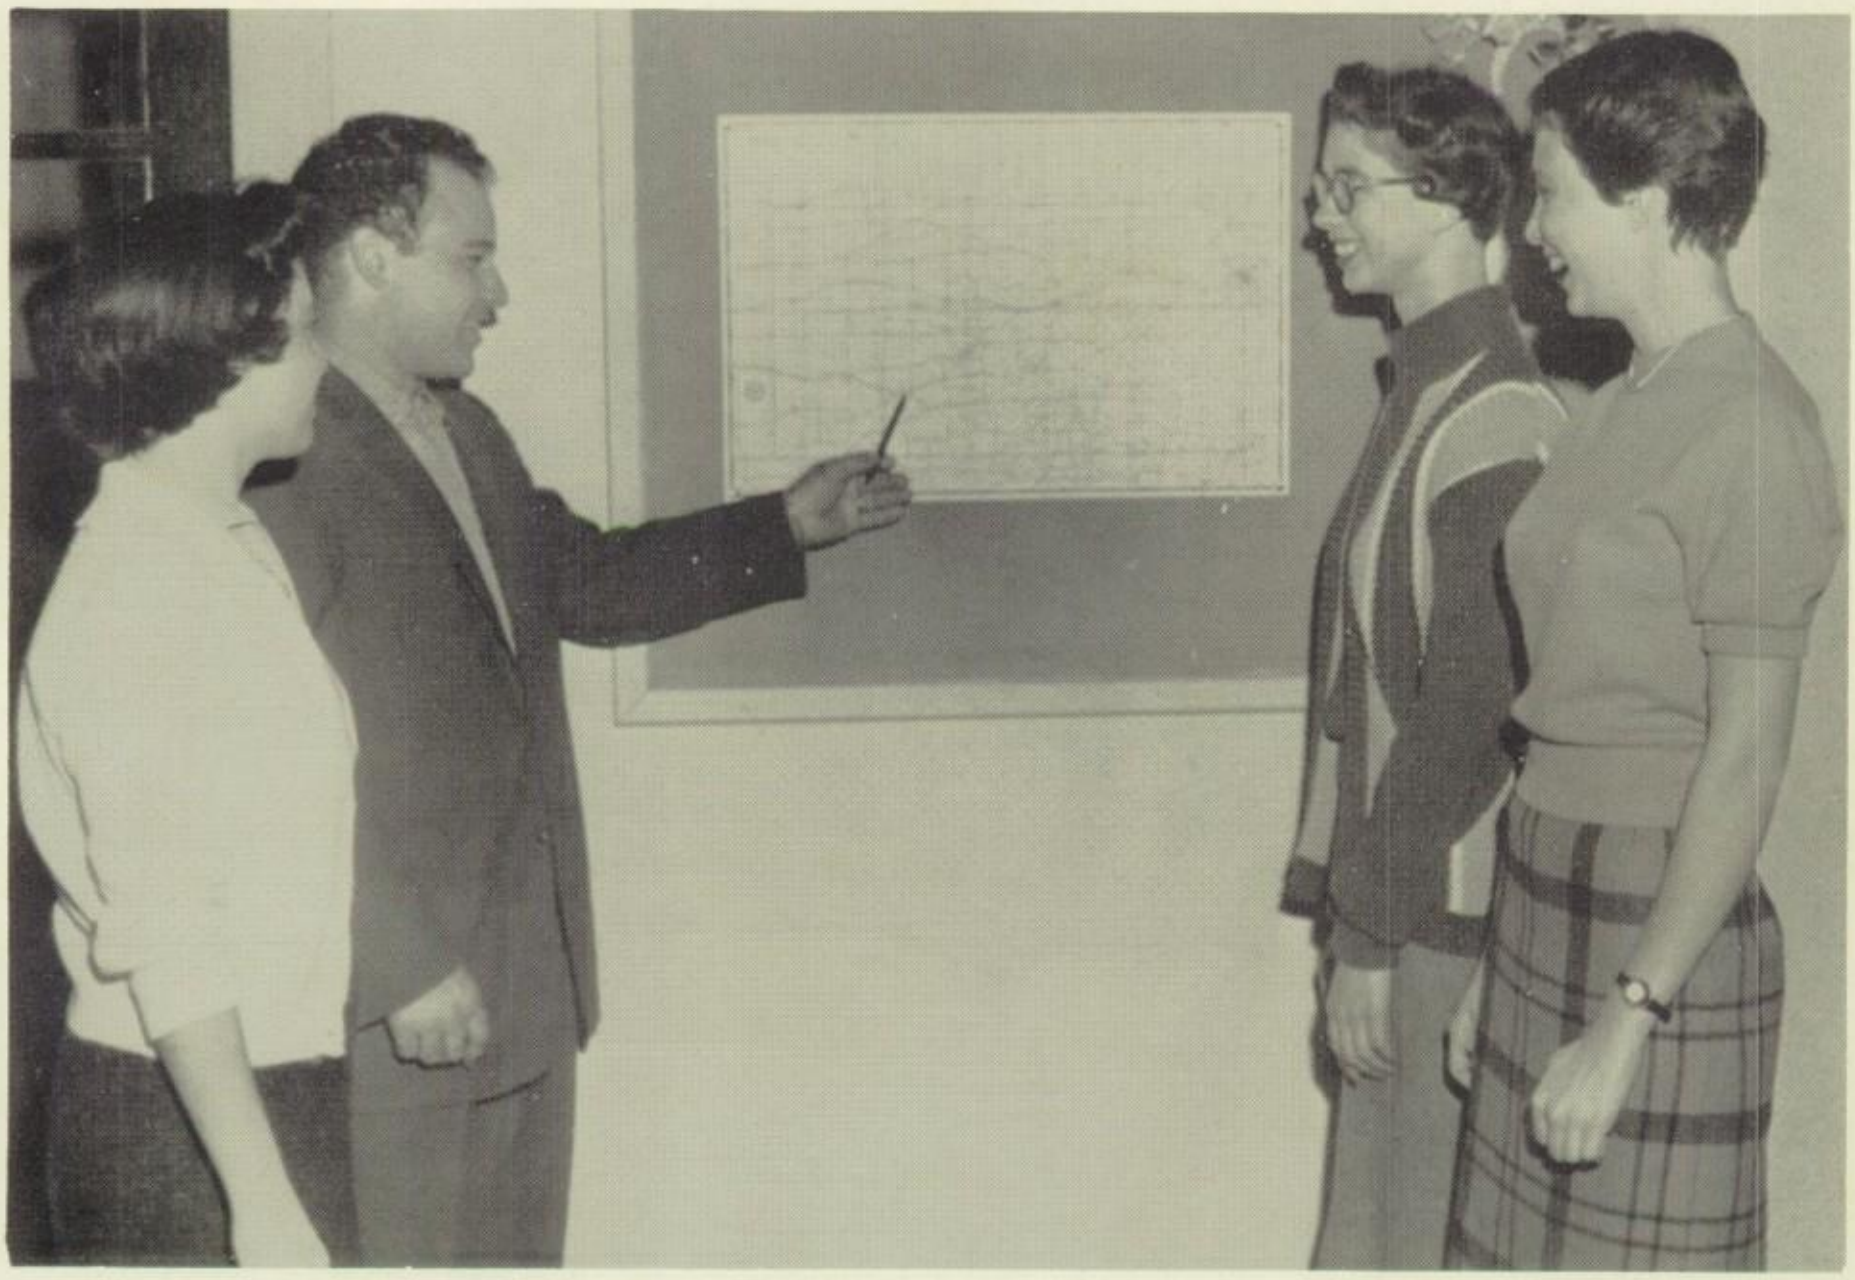
Father Prichard eases tension before a big game for Bill Scavezze, and Gene Corsini.

Maureen Miller seeks counseling from Farther Kocour.

Coach Lon Farrell smiles as he totals up favorable scores.

Mr. Robert Scott gives basic instruction to band members.

SENIORS



Lee Cronister, President; Karen Keller, Secretary; Eileen McNally, Vice-President; and Kay King, Treasurer; study the map in anticipation of the Senior trip.

All aboard for a great adventure

CLASS OF 1959

In September '55, forty freshmen boarded a chartered academic bus and adopted the slogan "Fifty-nine or bust." Our first driver, who incidentally being found so capable was kept on for four years, was Lee Cronister. He was assisted by Dennis Purdon. Recorder of highlights was Joyce Monsour and Richard Smith collected the money for gas. This, was under the expert supervision of Sister M. Teresita. Among its passengers were five new faces: Richard Cicero, Pat Fager, Susan Simoncic, Frances Stahl, and Mary Bess Hainline. This passenger list claimed many celebrities. They were: annual attendants, Kay King and John Hamilton; May Queen attendants, Glen Gilmore and Nikki Banke; Cheerleader, Susan Simoncic; football players, Benelli, Pasini, Corsini, R. Smith, Scavezze, Quinn, Zigmund, Cronister, Hamilton and Lundberg; cagers, Corsini, Pasini, Quinn, and Scavezze; baseball players, Zigmund, Machetta, and Corsini. As we completed this our freshman year we had reached the first milestone on our trip.

Still driving in '56 was Lee Cronister, under the sponsorship of Sister M. Cyrilla. He was aided by Mike Quinn, Virginia Elliott, and Kay King as relief driver, mileage recorder and keeper of the funds. We lost one passenger at the first stop (Richard Smith), but gained three new ones (Maureen Miller, Karen Keller, and John O'Malley). Many of our passengers were active participants: Richard Cicero in the newly-formed Madrigal; Nikki Banke as Cheerleader; and Rosemary Colborn as Homecoming attendant. Members of the champion football team were: Corsini, Hamilton, Fager, Zigmund, Scavezze, Cronister, Benelli, Lundberg, Quinn, Gilmore, and O'Malley. Seen on the hardwoods were: Corsini, Scavezze, and Zigmund. Running the bases were: Zigmund and Quinn, while Pat Fager joined the "Golden Glove" men. King and Hamilton captured the big prize by being dubbed the annual royalty. Zigmund and L. Cronister were initiated into the Thespians. Socially we sponsored the Halloween dance. As May '57 came and went we had rounded the second major bend in the road of our journey.

Still at the wheel in our junior year was Cronister, McNally taking over in emergencies, Keller taking notes while King was chief custodian of the funds. This year's trip was sponsored by Sister M. Vincentia. Four new names appeared on the passenger list. They were: Jo Marie Burgar, Pat Epple, Dale Starchman, and Morris Swan, while four others had been removed: John Casterman, Pat Fager, Merle Pasini, and Delores Theys. Among our renowned passengers we had: gridiron men and M.B.L. champs, Hamilton, Scavezze, Zigmund, Quinn, Corsini, Cronister, Machetta, Benelli, and Vietti; basketball champs, Scavezze, Corsini, Quinn, and Zigmund; Burgar as Cheerleader; Monsour as majorette; Colborn again as Homecoming attendant; Quinn and Martinous as Marian candidates; Madrigal singers, Keller, Wettstein, Monsour, Cicero, Zigmund, Starchman, and Machetta; Thespians, Monsour, McNally, Keller, S. Cronister, and C. Buset. Girl and Boy's State representatives, Keller, L. Cronister, Quinn, and Vietti. Socially we proudly boasted the Mock and Junior-Senior banquet.

Finally as we reached the last stretch of our journey (with Cronister still Chief navigator) we received a real set back, the death of one of our most beloved passengers, Freddie Benelli. Other cancellations in this last year were: Sherry Simoncic and Pat Epple. Getting on at the last stop were two more celebrities: Carolyn Scales and Ed Keearns. Checking the occupations of the passengers we found: champion football players, Cronister, Corsini, Machetta, Lundberg, Zigmund, Scavezze, Starchman, Vietti, Quinn, and Hamilton; ball bouncers, Corsini, Scavezze, and Zigmund; Thomas and Vietti were annual royalty; Monsour was drum major; Burgar and Martinous were cheerleaders; Colborn was Homecoming queen; Watson and Buset, co-editors of the Marian; Keller, editor of the Marianette with McNally as assistant; Watson, prefect of the Sodality; Buset was May Queen, with Colborn and McNally as attendants; Cronister was president of the band as Buset and Simoncic held the posts of librarian and secretary-treasurer respectively; Keearns held the baton as student director; McNally, Pep Club prexy; Corsini, Quinn, Scavezze, and Cronister were voted most valuable on the gridiron. Cronister and McNally were representatives on the Student Court which was created in '59. Quinn was Thespian prexy with S. Cronister as secretary. Early in May we donned our sports wear for a week at Eureka Springs under the sponsorship of Monsignor Stremel.

On May 31, 1959, we reached our destination under the direct guidance of Sister M. Linus. After a most profitable trip we bade our fond farewells to all our fellow passengers and went our separate ways but always uppermost in our minds is that we shall always be tied together under the title "The Class of '59."
